Brief Description: Echo is a wonderful pony. He has been shown from a very young age and almost always with kids 18 and under. He has been shown in Beginner Novice and almost always places. He was shown several times this year and three times Children's pony Hunter Division. He received Champion twice and Reserved once. Echo is a wonderful mover and a really sweet-natured pony. His owner has sadly outgrown him and he needs to find another kid to teach and be adored by.
